Total Ablaze! Grant awarded to your project:

You may complete and submit this Six-Month Progress Report Form—use extra paper if you need to—or compose your own report providing answers to the following questions.

1) What has been done on your Ablaze-funded project to date? How is the project going?

2) Briefly, describe your ministry's need/goals(s) as outlined on your grant request and the impact the project has had towards meeting those need/goal(s)

3) Tell us how the District's grant has helped make your ministry a more active mission station? Has our partnership with you been productive?

4) Do you have a sense of new directions opening up for your ministry now that your Ablaze-funded project is underway?

5) Has the grant led to greater collaborations with other Missouri Synod parishes in your area, with other wider church agencies, or with other non-church agencies in your community? Please expand.

6) Are there ways we at the Atlantic District can be of greater assistance to you during the term of the grant?

7) Please give a brief accounting of how grant funds have been spent.

Please remember to share stories related to this project that you feel may assist or inspire other ministries in the District. Send us photos, and provide brief captions, too!
